COMPARISON OF ADVANTAGES AND DISADVANTAGES

for

Colonel [redacted] to accept
Civilian Employment With CIA or Remain In Military Service

CIA

Military Service

1. He now has almost 10 years military service which can be credited to civilian retirement after first five years of civilian service. He is now 44 years of age and in 16 years could retire under USCSC retirement plan. He has a chance of being in super-grade before he retires.

2. Pay with CIA:

GS-15 - $10,800
GS-16 - 12,000
GS-17 - 13,000 ✓
GS-18 - 14,800 ✓

3. Retired pay after 30 years service (military and civilian) under USCSC retirement plan (computed at base salary of grade):

GS-15 - $4,860
GS-16 - 5,400
GS-17 - 5,850
GS-18 - 6,660 ✓

1. His age, experience, and efficiency are such that he might attain the rank of General before regular military retirement, but it must be remembered he is a non-flyer which reduces his chances of attaining that rank.

2. Pay (non-flying) with the USAF (30 years service):

Colonel $10,930
Brigadier General . . . 12,940 ✓
Major General 14,540 ✓

3. Retired pay after 30 years service:

Colonel $6,535 ✓
Brigadier General . . . 7,736
Major General 8,936
